

Winning Works of the 11th Noma Concours Exhibited at BIB'99

The Noma Concours for Picture Book Illustrations is organized by ACCU, and aims to encourage illustrations in Asia and the Pacific, Latin America and the Caribbean, Africa and the Arab States to create high quality, attractive artwork for children's picture books. It has displayed the winning works worldwide in the past two decades.

The latest Noma Concours' winning works were exhibited at BIB'99 (Biennale of Illustrations, Bratislava) in Slovakia from 10 September to 31 October 1999 and attracted the attention of art specialists, critics, publishers and people who visited the exhibition. As BIB is one of the celebrated international competitions and exhibitions of original illustrations for children's books, it would be a significant opportunity for the winning artists to have their unique high quality artworks introduced in Europe.

The Noma Concours Secretariat hopes to gain more opportunities to introduce these winning works to the world and welcomes your interest in exhibitions and publications for these winners.
